

Volunteer Awards for the Italian Community 2010

The 2010 Volunteer Awards for the Italian Community are now open!

Young Volunteer Award – volunteers under 40 years of age whose Volunteer contributions and achievements have made a significant difference to the Italian community in South Australia.

Volunteer Award – volunteers 40 years of age and over whose volunteer contributions and achievements have made a significant difference to the Italian community in South Australia.

The volunteer doesn't need to be from an Italian background to be nominated as long as the volunteer work benefits Italian people in the community. Some examples may be preparing or delivering meals, transport support, friendly visiting of older Italian people in aged care facilities, administration and boards of management.

Judges will be made up of CO.AS.IT. representatives and a representative from the Office for Volunteers. Judges will be considering the generosity of time, resources and energy and how the volunteer works with the community to make a difference, while successfully combining significant volunteer efforts with other responsibilities and enjoying what they do.

The volunteer awards recognise individuals who have given generously to the Italian community. While this award is given to individuals CO.AS.IT. recognises that many people give generously of their time and these individuals are representative of the volunteer community.

The winners will be presented with a certificate and prize during the COASIT Volunteer Recognition Event in May. Simply fill in the nomination form. All nominations must be submitted with the volunteer's consent. Closing date for nominations 5.00pm Friday 16 April 2010. Late nominations will not be accepted.
